National Association for Court Management (NACM) Presents the Award of Merit

Tampa, Florida July 21, 2023 – At the NACM Annual conference, the Association presented its highest award, the Award of Merit, to Marcus Reinkensmeyer of Arizona. Per NACM's Operations Manual, one Award of Merit can be given to an individual or an organization that has contributed significantly to the field of court administration. Only one Award of Merit may be given each year.

Marcus Reinkensmeyer is the Deputy Director and past Director of the Court Services Division for the Administrative Office of the Courts, Supreme Court of Arizona. Previously, he served as the court administrator, chief deputy court administrator and director of judicial information systems for the Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County. In the State of Illinois, Marcus served as assistant director of the Administrative Office of the Courts (Court Services Division), court administrator (17th Judicial Circuit), assistant superintendent of juvenile detention and a probation officer. Marcus serves as a board member for the North American Regional Board of International Association for Court Administration. He is the past president of the National Association for Court Management and the Arizona Courts Association, and former editor of the Court Manager. Marcus serves as faculty for the NCSC's Institute for Court Management (ICM) and adjunct faculty for the National Judicial College. His articles appear in Judicature, The Court Manager, Justice System Journal, Future Trends in State Courts, the Judges Journal, the ABA's JD Record and The retrospective of Courthouse Design.

Marcus holds a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University and a Master's degree in Public Administration from Northern Illinois University. He is a recipient of Arizona Supreme Court's Distinguished Service Award, the ICM Award of Merit, and the NCSC Warren E. Burger Award and the JMI Ernest C. Friesen Award.
